PROFILE

I'm a full stack developer based in Ethiopia, with a strong foundation in both backend and frontend technologies. I specialize in designing and building robust APIs and databases, while also crafting responsive, user-friendly interfaces. Currently, I'm deepening my expertise in Next.js and expanding my portfolio with MERN stack projects. I'm dedicated to writing clean, maintainable code and constantly leveling up my skills through hands-on practice and continuous learning.

PROJECTS

PicShare

A full-stack web application inspired by Pinterest, built with React (frontend), Node.js (backend), and MongoDB (database). This project allows users to create, view, like, and save posts with images, as well as organize them into boards.

FilmLane

This modern movie streaming platform harnesses TMDB's extensive data to deliver real-time browsing of movies and TV shows. Crafted with TypeScript, React, and Node.js, it features secure JWT authentication, personalized watchlists, and a resume-enabled watch history. Its responsive UI and robust backend with Express, Prisma, and MySQL create an engaging user experience.

BioTech-WebSite

A modern, responsive website for the BioTech Research Institute, designed to showcase ongoing research, achievements, team members, and key updates in biotechnology. Built using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, this website serves as a central hub for researchers, collaborators, and the public to stay informed about groundbreaking advancements in the field.
